Congressional.

Hon. W. L. Underwood, K. N., has written a circular dated Washington, February 10th, and sent it to his constituents of the Third district, declining to make another race for Congress. The Bowling-Green Standard has hoisted the name of Joseph H. Lewis, Esq., as the Democratic candidate in the same district. Mr. Lewis, it will be remembered, ran against Mr. Underwood in 1857, and reduced the Know-Nothing majority of about two thousand down to two hundred, which circumstance, coupled with the fact that he is again urged to make the race, will very satisfactorily account for Mr. U.'s withdrawal from another contest. Mr. Lewis is entitled to the race, and his friends should make him run. We want an unbroken delegation in the next Congress, and we consider him good for the redemption of one of the two misrepresented districts of the State.

In the fifth district, or the "papal dominions," as it is sometimes termed, Hon. Joshua H. Jewett has announced himself a candidate for re-election, subject to a Democratic Convention, if one should be necessary. His circular will be found in another column. He is justly regarded as one of our ablest members in Congress, and his chances for re-nomination are the best. On the Democracy of his district there is no discount; it is always good for a majority too big to be counted, against a Know-Nothing or any other description of the "ring-streaked and striped" Opposition.

In this district the Democracy intend to run James B. Clay. Let anybody beat him if he can.

Burnett, Peyton, Mason, and Stevenson will run again in their respective districts, the first, second, ninth, and tenth. Their election by increased majorities is not the subject of a doubt.

It is said that Talbot and Elliott, both representing Democratic districts, will not be candidates for re-election. If they should determine to decline, their places will be filled by other Democrats yet to be nominated by district conventions.

In the Louisville district, Col. Thomas H. Holt is most prominently spoken of as the Democrat who is to lay Col. Humphrey Marshall on the shelf. If he receives the nomination, we have no doubt of his entire ability to accomplish this desirable result. Altogether, the prospects of the Democracy were never at any time before so flattering in this State. They have already one of the two U. S. Senators, who takes his office to-morrow at noon, and the result of the coming August election for members of the State Legislature will secure the election of the other, who is to succeed Mr. Crittenden, while, if we are not the worst mistaken individual in the world, they will elect next August an entire and unbroken delegation to the Lower House of Congress.

Col. Geo. H. Morrow and Col. J. K. Huey are both spoken of in the Paducah district as candidates for the State Senate. Caldwell and Livingston counties have recommended Col. Morrow. The other counties of the district recommend Col. Huey. The Paducah Herald says that both, under Mason's rule, will have the same number of votes in a district convention. Both are good men, and we hope that if the convention can't settle the matter, they may make a compromise or settlement between themselves. The Democratic majority in the district is too small to keep up two Democratic candidates for the same post.

It is understood that Hon. Joshua F. Bell has consented to be sacrificed in August next; in fact we have heard it said that he was all the time anxious to get the nomination, and his affected objection before the Louisville Convention met was merely a piece of harmless coquetry with the Know-Nothing opposition concern.

Col. R. D. Gholson is spoken of as a candidate for the State Senate in the First Senatorial district.

GRADUATES IN MEDICINE.—The following Kentuckians graduated last week in the Nashville Medical University, viz: J. E. Anthony, J. W. Briggs, D. C. Crittenden, B. Evans, D. J. Foster, H. L. Leigh, J. E. Moore, and J. T. W. Taylor.

Breckinridge and the Catholics—A Dirty Falsehood Nailed to the Counter.

A Washington correspondent of the Richmond Enquirer, in a letter of the 14th inst., in which he endeavors to smut every Democrat who has been named in connection with the Presidency, except Governor Wise, takes occasion to utter a dirty falsehood on the report of a speech of Mr. Breckinridge made in Kentucky during the late campaign. The only reported speech made by Mr. Breckinridge during the campaign that was published in the Union was the one he made at Florence. We were present and heard that speech, and we assert that Mr. Breckinridge made no such remarks as those attributed to him by the Richmond Enquirer's correspondent. His statement is a falsehood, cut out of whole cloth. Here is what he says:

"Omega also speaks of the Hon. John C. Breckinridge as an aspirant for the Presidency. Such has been the rumor here for some time past, and it has been even reported that Judge Douglas, in the event of his not getting the nomination himself, will give his support to Mr. Breckinridge. I don't believe a word of it. It is true that the President and Mr. Breckinridge are not on the most amicable terms, and, of course, he does not look for aid from the 'White House' for the furtherance of his views on that point. But if he had Douglas' and Buchanan's united aid, and if he got the nomination, it is very doubtful if he could be elected President. In a speech which Mr. Breckinridge made in Kentucky during the late campaign, and republished in the Union, of this city—copies of which are laid aside for future reference—he openly declared war against the appointment of Catholic citizens to office. He said that when he had the power to bestow office, and was applied to for it by a Catholic and a Protestant citizen of equal merits, (for words to the same effect,) he would give the Protestant the preference. Mr. Breckinridge, I suppose, has but an imperfect knowledge of the rights of citizenship under the Federal Constitution. At all events he would not make a President to suit his Catholic fellow-citizens."

Terrible Steamboat Accident!—Two Hundred Lives Lost.

NEW ORLEANS, Feb. 28.—The steamboat Princess, from Vicksburg, for New Orleans, exploded and burned on Sunday morning, at Conrad's Point, near Baton Rouge. There were 400 persons on board, of whom 200 are lost and missing, mostly residents of Louisiana and Mississippi. A large number of ladies were on board, finding the ladies' cabin a part of the gentlemen's cabin.

KILLAN—J. W. Seymour, Baton Rouge; Calhoun, Mayville Ky.; pilot of Princess; assistant engineer; H. B. Murphy, St. Louis; J. J. Hodges, Mississippi, and three unknown.

MISSING.—Charles Bonister and L. C. Hard, Representatives, New Orleans; Joseph Clark, second clerk; Samuel Watts, Virginia.

No other Northern or Eastern names are ascertained. A large number were badly scalded and otherwise injured.

The boat and cargo are a total loss. The boat was one of the finest on the river.

NEW ORLEANS, Feb. 28, P. M.—A boat has arrived from the wreck of the Princess. She brings a number of the wounded and dead.

The foggy atmosphere of the explosion. The Princess was behind time, and had too much steam on.

A Baton Rouge dispatch says the engineer is reported to have said that he would reach New Orleans at a certain hour or blow up. The engineer was out in two.

About 100 were wounded, many dangerously, and a large number were killed. The number lost. Many were saved by several boats. Much excitement here and all along the river. Numerous recognized bodies are being found. No other Northern or Western names have been ascertained.

THE SIXTH DISTRICT.—The voluntary retirement of Hon. John M. Elliott has already brought to the front a number of aspirants for the seat of that part of the District in which Mr. T. resides, he has much to commend him to the special consideration of the Convention. A life of devoted service to his party, of strict fidelity to his principles, high personal character, and accented ability, are the basis of appeals made by his friends.

The Democratic nomination in the old Sixth District is equivalent to an election, and we express the hope of a host of admiring friends when we bespeak for Mr. Turner the position for which he is now urged. We recognize the qualifications and worth of other aspirants, and would be far from disparaging their merits, but we do know that not one is more deserving the honor, and none would fill the post with more credit to the party, than the talented, clever, and popular editor of the "Mountain Democrat."

His many personal and political friends in all parts of the State would rejoice at his promotion.

LEZ STATESMAN.

Hon. J. H. Jewett a Candidate for re-election to Congress.

Hon. J. H. Jewett, U. S. Senator, }
Washington, Feb. 26, 1859. }

To the Editors of the Louisville Democrat:

GENTLEMEN: You will do me the kindness to announce me a candidate for re-election to Congress, from the Fifth Congressional District, through the columns of your extensively read journal. In making this announcement, I embrace the occasion to re-assert my opposition to Conventions, "per se," that is to say, I am entirely opposed to a Congressional Convention, in the mere sense of a Convention; but am in favor of a Convention to take candidates off the track, if too many get on it. On this platform and organization I hope ever to stand, if I stand isolated and alone. Please be so kind as to publish this note, and greatly oblige.

Your fellow-citizen,
J. H. JEWETT.

Democratic Meeting in Todd.

On Monday, the 14th inst., the Democracy of Todd county assembled in the court-house at Elkton. Hon. H. G. Bibb was called to the chair, and R. F. Allison appointed Secretary. Messrs. E. Weathers, Milton Lewis, and Russell Whitesides, were appointed a committee to draft resolutions. During the absence of the committee, Wm. A. Jefferson, Esq., was called upon to address the meeting, which he did in a very able manner.

The committee reported the following resolutions, which were unanimously adopted:

Resolved, That the Democracy of Todd county hereby ratify the proceedings of the Convention held at Frankfort, on the 10th of January, and pledge their undivided support to the ticket named.

Resolved, That for Senator, from the District composed of Todd and Christian counties, the Democracy of Todd county will take pleasure in supporting Dr. John C. Whitlock, of Christian, and recommend his nomination by the Democracy of Christian.

H. G. BIBB, Chairman.
R. F. ALLISON, Secretary.

M. Biot, a learned Frenchman, gives the following scientific view of the immortality of men:

"You do not die—you only change your state aggregation. It is true, your nitrogen, your hydrogen, and your carbonate separate; they are distributed through the atmosphere, penetrate plants and animals, or are absorbed by the earth; but as no atom perishes, you continue to exist; the only difference is, that you find yourself reduced to a more simple expression."

DROWNED.—An afflicted—epileptic—daughter of Mr. Sam'l Vogan, of this county, living on the banks of Licking river, was drowned on Sunday night last. She had a fit in the night, and after it wore off, got up, went to the back water of the river, waded in, and was drowned. With the assistance of friends, her body was found on Monday, and buried on Tuesday. She was 28 years old.—Flemingsburg News.

Further Particulars of the Washington Homicide.

BALTIMORE, Feb. 28.—The Washington correspondent of the N. Y. Tribune of this morning furnishes the following additional particulars regarding the Sickles Key affair of Sunday:

For more than a year there have been floating rumors of improper intimacy between Mr. Key and Mrs. Sickles. They have from time to time attended parties and the opera, and to a great extent, they have been seen together. Mr. Sickles has heard of these reports, but would never credit them until Thursday evening last. On that evening as a party was breaking up at his house, Mr. S. received among his papers an anonymous letter, but without opening his mail or knowing the contents of the letter, he accompanied his wife to a "chop" at Willard's.

On his return home, at midnight, Mr. Sickles opened the anonymous letter, which informed him of the infidelity of his wife, and of her intimacy with Mr. Key, and stating in detail the manner of their meeting, and naming the place of rendezvous. The letter was so plausible in its statements, and gave such precise directions for the detection of the parties, that Mr. Sickles, in the morning, that Mr. Sickles decided to investigate the facts. Accordingly, he placed the letter in the hands of two of his most intimate friends, who last evening (Saturday) possessed themselves of the evidence, satisfactory to Mr. Sickles, that Mr. Key had rented a house of a negro, in Fifth street, which he used as a place of rendezvous with Mrs. Sickles.

This morning, (Sunday,) being in great agony of mind, Mr. Sickles, in presence of two witnesses, charged his wife with having had illicit intercourse with Mr. Key. At first Mrs. S. declared her innocence. Mr. Sickles then paraded before her the evidence of her guilt, when she became overwhelmed with the sudden arraignment and, finally, confessed her guilt. With this verbal confession, but desired Mrs. S. to make the confession in writing. She complied, and she also informed him how often Mr. Key had been in the habit of seeing her, and his mode of telegraphing to her, by the wave of his handkerchief, when he wanted her to come out.

Mr. Sickles' residence is No. 7 President's Square, in view of the Jackson statue, which is opposite the White House. In full view of Mr. S.'s residence, on the other side of the square 15 1/2 street, is the Washington Club House which Mr. Key frequented, and from the window of which Mrs. S. says he was in the habit of telegraphing to her, with his white handkerchief. If Mr. S. was absent, she was in the habit of returning the signal.

After Mrs. S. confessed her guilt, her husband demanded her to return to him her wedding ring, and desired her to write for her father to send for her, and take her in charge. Her father is Antonio Bajola, an Italian music master in New York city, where he has resided about thirty years.

Her mother's name was Cook, who was born in New York. Mr. S. married his wife when she was six years of age. He took her to England with him when he was Secretary of Legation at London under Mr. Buchanan, and introduced her to the Queen, carried her to the Continent, and into the most fashionable society. He loved her with great devotion, and lavished all his means upon her. They lived in elegant style here, occupying a house of $3,000 rent.

Mrs. S. rode in a splendid carriage with "out riders," wore jewels to the value of $5,000, and seemed to want nothing that she did not have.

Immediately after the shooting, the body of Mr. Key was picked up and conveyed into the club house, from which he was in the habit of telegraphing to Mrs. S. Mr. Key is a nephew of Judge Taney, and brother-in-law to Mr. Pendleton, member of Congress from Ohio. The father of Mr. Key was the author of the "Star Spangled Banner."

Key and Sickles were both intimate friends of the President, and as Mr. S. has killed the District Attorney, it will be necessary for the President to appoint another.

An attempt will be made to-morrow to issue a writ of habeas corpus for Mr. S. before Judge Crawford, in the hope to release him on bail. Mr. Key's friends are quite indignant, and talk about shooting Mr. S. at sight. It is stated that Mr. Butterworth, who was in conversation with Mr. Key when Mr. S. came up, was in the house of the latter immediately before the shooting affair happened. Mr. S. has one daughter, six years of age, and a son, four years of age. He has also a daughter twelve years of age.

The Washington Star of this evening furnishes a few additional particulars.

There was no examination to-day, as expected. It is supposed that Sickles will be released on bail.

Threats are made that he will never leave the city alive.

The Hon. Robert J. Walker and Messrs. Carlisle and Ratcliffe have been retained as counsel for Mr. Sickles.

ANOTHER PITTSBURGH TESTIFYING TO THE WONDERFUL CURATIVE POWERS OF BERHAVE'S HOLLAND BITTERS.—Mr. Jacob White, Third street, below Market, says:

"For a year past I have been afflicted very seriously with dyspepsia, so much so, that my stomach refused to retain anything; I have tried almost every remedy, and the regimen of several physicians, without alleviation, until I began the use of Berhave's Holland Bitters, and have now found relief almost amounting to a cure. I found it efficacious in removing the extreme debility occasioned by this disease, and generally as a tonic. I have few equals and no superior. marl t-w3w1

Rheumatism Cured.

To the readers of the Yeoman: Preserve this notice. If not afflicted yourself, you may save suffering humanity by sending it to some one who is.

Dr. Mortimore, by personal treatment, and the use of his remedy, by Physicians and Druggists, has cured probably twenty thousand cases of this painful and paralyzing disease—comprising cases of every seeming form, from those of a recent inflammatory (acute) character, to old chronic cases of ten, twenty, and even thirty years' standing.

This disease is becoming more prevalent every year, and is seldom cured, or even alleviated, by the usual course of treatment. In its active form it often proves fatal, or if not soon arrested, becomes chronic—stiffens the joints, contracts the ligaments, muscles, and tendons, and thus renders the sufferer a cripple for life, or, if ever afterwards cured, even by the use of this remedy, requires longer treatment and greater expense.

This is a vegetable internal remedy which cured the proprietor of it after long suffering, and all the usual remedies known had failed, and is safe to be used in any state of health—even by the most delicate female or child, and its success, in curing rheumatism, is attested by thousands, among whom are eminent physicians, ministers of various denominations, prominent journalists, and individuals of high standing throughout our country, such as should inspire confidence in every rational mind.

This evidence can be had on call at the office; or those at a distance, by addressing the proprietor, will receive, by mail, a circular of evidence.

The remedy can be had at $5 per bottle, or five bottles for $20. Persons ordering at a distance can remit at the proprietor's risk by registering letter, and the medicine will be forwarded by express, or as directed, to any place in the United States or Europe.
